

LITERARY NOTES.

Mr. Geo. P. Lathrop will have a critical study of early American novelists in the April Atlantic.

A new volume by Miss Yonge, "The Christmas Mummer and other Stories," has been published abroad.

A work by Mr. E. L. Gedkin of The Nation, "On Government," will be published during the year by Henry Holt & Co.

Gen. Francis A. Walker has a manual of political economy in preparation. It will be published by Henry Holt & Co.

Mr. Ruskin has edited a work on "The Art Schools of Medieval Christendom," by A. C. Owen, just ready in England.

The third volume of Lanfrey's "History of Napoleon the First" (an English translation) is promised by Macmillan & Co. for early issue.

E. J. Hale & Son will soon publish "Moody and Sankey, an Authentic Account of their Lives and Services," by Mr. Frank S. Reader.

Prof. Horodoff Rogers will print "Epistles, Satires, and Epigrams," the first two volumes from Horodoff and Juvenal, but entirely modernized.

A little book of "Hints on Bible Marking," by Mrs. Stephen Menzies, with a preface note by Mr. Moody, will be published by A. D. F. Randolph & Co.

A work on "The English Bible," by John Eddie, D. D., LL. D., being a history of the various tractions of the Scriptures, is on the press of Macmillan & Co.

George MacDonald's new novel, "Thomas Winfield, Curate," to be published by George Routledge & Sons, will be directed chiefly against the religious, or religious, views of such scientists as Prof. Tyndall.

Col. George E. Waring will publish in the March Atlantic a final article on Drainage. His valuable papers on this subject will then be put in shape for a volume to be issued by Hurd & Houghton, under the title of "Sanitary Drainage in Cities."

M. Neville of Geneva has been commissioned by the Prussian Government to prepare an eclectic text of the Egyptian "Ritual of the Dead," the chief remains of Egyptian literature, and is at present engaged in an examination of the principal papyri in England.

Mr. Edward Jenkins, author of "Ginx's Baby," has at last begun the serial publication of his Gothic novel, entitled "Lethbridge and Dillie," a name several years ago. Dodd & Mead long since made direct arrangements with the author for its publication here.

Col. R. I. Dodge, U. S. A., in addition to his work on the Plains, has written a volume on "The Black Hills," which will give the routes, with map, descriptions of the scenery, views, and the facts as to soil, timber, climate, gold, etc. Col. Dodge was one of the military exploring expedition.

A number of Shelley MSS. have long been in the possession of Mr. Townsend Mayer, an English collector, many of which he lent to Mr. Baxter Forman for use in the preparation of his edition of Shelley's Works, to be published by Messrs. Read & Turner. In Saint James's Magazine for March publishes a sonnet from this series, the MS. being in Shadley's own handwriting.

Robert Clarke & Co. are to reissue, in two octavo volumes, "The Olden Time," a monthly publication begun by Neville Clark at Pittsburgh, in 1846-7, and devoted to the preservation of documents and other authentic information in relation to the early explorations and settlement and improvement of the country around the Head of the Ohio." It is an important work in local history.
